SWITZERLAND
BY Joanna Murray-Smith

Patricia Highsmith penned some of the most exhilarating suspense novels of all time including The Talented Mr Ripley and Strangers on a Train. Now the acerbic author herself is centre stage in this edge-of-your-seat thriller.

Writer Patricia Highsmith is facing the end of her life and has withdrawn completely from the world, finding solace in her seclusion, her cats and cigarettes. One day a young man, Edward Ridgeway, intrudes into her place of refuge. He's yet another irritating delegate from her publisher demanding a contract for one final instalment. Specifically another psychological thriller featuring her beloved muse and most infamous literary creation, Tom Ripley.

Come and join us for dinner and theatre!
