

Thrice Thank You

Our State Government and the Department of Regional Development have recently come to the assistance of Northcliffe's CRC in the form of three grants from the 'CRC Development Fund'.

These grant monies come from the Government's Royalties for Regions program, as does our core annual CRC funding / services contract. Our thanks for this support. Thanks also and to those groups in Northcliffe who provided us letters of support for these projects.

Improved air-conditioning at the Northcliffe CRC

DRD contributed $3188 for this project which cost just over $4000. We have a new air-conditioner for our large room and we have directed the old air-conditioner into our meeting room. This should make stuffy meetings a lot more comfortable for our users.

Adobe In-Design training for CRC staff and vollies

DRD contributed $2000 toward this two day training session for two of our staff plus one volunteer. The training is happening in Nannup. The aim is to make us more able to prepare high quality publications for customers and for CRC programs. The poster for our 'Inside' photo competition, below, was produced using Adobe's In-Design software.

a little CRC...

Replacement of Wide-Format Printer

Northcliffe CRC's wide-format printer is the oldest piece of computer hardware in the centre and due for replacement.

A $5000 financial contribution from the Department will cover a helpful portion of the $13,000 cost of replacement. The rest is coming from funds raised by the Northcliffe CRC, over our years of selling wide-format printing services.

The replacement printer will have slightly lower operating costs, higher print speeds and should produce some big quality improvements (especially for canvas printing).

The current unit is in need of a service, only available in Perth unfortunately. With this caveat in mind it is likely the unit will be offered for sale second-hand.

We will be producing a newsletter about our new printer once it arrives, to let you know all the wonders it is capable of! More about this project soon...

Self-funded

As well as our substantial contributions of funds to the above projects Northcliffe's CRC has recently funded new paving outside the CRC and an outdoor seat to be installed shortly.

Understory

ROYALTIES FOR REGIONS

A yolk. Caramel dribbles from a soft centered chocolate. The black cavern of the Hollow Butt. Scarlet sap from an axe wound. A seed nestling in a pod. A front door yawning. A dog warms by the fire. A man reads in a recliner. A chicken in a pot. Blood welling from a paper cut. A match in a box. Open wide and show us: Inside. Look through the letterbox; inside, through the slit. There, live the spiders, the dusty lightflows, the snail shell. Inside the crevice, under your hat, open the card and read the message. door yawns. A dog warms by the fire.
